Anyone ever have the desire to learn how to play the Steel Drums?

If so, then this is something you may be interested in...

Dave Herzog from the Mile Marker 24 band is interested in giving classes in Steel Drums in our area. He has enough drums for 12-13 folks. There is no requirement to read music, he has a secret method that is easy for even the most basic beginner. The group will meet for 6 classes and meet once a week. If one week falls on a holiday etc. you will meet the following week, so maybe 6-8 weeks long. Classes last about 1 1/2 hours. You need to be a little early to set-up instruments etc. The cost is $150 if paid weekly at $25 per week or $125 at 2nd lesson for those who pay total up-front. Dave would like to do classes on Monday or Tuesday evenings.

If you are interested please contact

Wendy DeVries at edalpha@bellsouth.net or call at 772 286-7321.

We have changed the date for the Tiki God Challenge!!!

It is now scheduled for Saturday Oct. 10th at Sandsprit Park in Port Salerno area. We will be enjoying a picnic lunch, horseshoes and live Trop-Rock music. So even if you don't play horseshoes, plan on coming out to cheer on your club. We need volunteers to help coordinate the event, so please contact Helen at parrothead1266@bellsouth.net or Jeannine at jeanninejo@comcast.net

Cancelled November Dolphin Roadtrip

If you had paid Jim McElheny to participate in the Dolphin Game Roadtrip in November (not the upcoming Monday Night Colts game), please email Pat and Nick Caruso at patandnick@bellsouth.com.

They are trying to get a list together in an effort to recoup the funds ASAP.
